

El Camino College Student Publications

National Advertising Rate Card, spring 2017

The Union is published six times each semester by Journalism students and is available across our large campus in Torrance, Calif. Our primary audience is the student body, but we also have many avid readers in the faculty and staff.

Our demographics rock!

El Camino's student publications serve one of the nation's largest single-campus community college districts, with a student population that tops 24,000. We're located in a prime area of Los Angeles County and draw students from coastal and metropolitan communities. Approximately 75 percent of El Camino College students are employed, which means they have money to spend at your business.

Racially, the El Camino College student population is highly diverse at approximately 52 percent Latino, 15 percent African American, 15 percent Asian/Filipino, 13 percent white and 5 percent other races.

By age, about 30 percent of students are 19 or under while 40 percent are 20-24. Students 25-39 make up about 22 percent of the population while those 40 and above are roughly 7 percent of the student body. Females make up 51.6 percent of the student body; males 48.4 percent.
